Sachin Ramesh Tendulkar was born on 24 April 1963 in Mumbai. His father, Ramesh Tendulkar, was a Marathi-language novelist and poet while his mother, Rajni, worked in the insurance industry. At Sharadashram Vidyamandir, he began his cricketing career under the coach Ramakant Achrekar. When he was fourteen, Indian Batsman Sunil Gavaskar gave him a pair of his own light pads. This touching gesture encouraged him and twenty years later, broke Gavaskar's world record of thirty-four test centuries. His grit, passion, and dedication remain unparalleled within the cricketing world. The love for Tendulkar goes beyond mere admiration for his world-class technique and hundred hundreds. Tendulkar maintained a humble and grounded persona throughout his career. He exhibited exemplary sportsmanship on and off the field, treating opponents, teammates, and fans with respect and grace. This humility resonated with people and contributed to his universal appeal.

Tendulkar has been actively involved in various philanthropic activities. He has contributed to numerous causes, particularly those related to child welfare and education. His work ethic, discipline, and determination serve as an inspiration for individuals from all walks of life, fostering a sense of admiration and respect. Tendulkar is given the sobriquet of the God of Cricket. He received many awards like Padma Vibhushan, Padma Shri, Rajiv Gandhi Khel Ratna and the Arjuna award by the Indian Government.

1. What is philanthropic activity?
2. What does sportsmanship mean?
3. Why do people respect Sachin?
4. Which word means a tag or nickname?
5. Which language does Sachin speak?
6. Mention the awards he received.
